Last updated: Fri 26 Apr 2024, 6:57 PM

For over 25 years, Al Bateen Fasteners LLC, the manufacturing arm of Al Bateen Building Materials Trading LLC, has been at the forefront of providing high-quality fasteners across various sectors, including Construction, Petrochemical, Power Generation and Railway Industries.

Currently, Al Bateen is involved in expanding and developing the Borouge Complex in Abu Dhabi, a joint venture between the Abu Dhabi National Oil Company (ADNOC) and Borealis, a leading Austrian international producer of chemical and plastic solutions. The company is also contributing to constructing the Madinah Entertainment Complex in Saudi Arabia, an upcoming entertainment destination initiated by Saudi Entertainment Ventures (SEVEN), a Public Investment Fund (PIF) subsidiary.

The company boasts an impressive portfolio of successful projects, including iconic landmarks like SeaWorld Abu Dhabi, JIN Dubai, Blue Water Island in the UAE and NEOM in Saudi Arabia. It has also significantly contributed to infrastructure projects such as the Dubai Metro, Khalifa Road, Riyadh Metro and Qatar Rail.

In the Petrochemical Industry, Al Bateen has played a vital role in projects such as the expansion and development of the Borouge Complex in Abu Dhabi, NEPCO in Nigeria, and the Temane Thermal Power Plant in Southern Mozambique.

Al Bateen Fasteners leads in adapting to industry trends

Founded in 1998, Al Bateen Fasteners LLC (manufacturing division of Al Bateen Building Materials Trading LLC), a leading supplier to high-profile infrastructure projects in the Middle East, is strengthening its foothold in the industry by adopting advanced manufacturing technologies and contributing to transformative projects like Neom, the Madinah Entertainment Complex, and the Mitha Dairy Farm.

The construction and manufacturing sectors are experiencing a significant shift towards automation and digitalisation.

"Al Bateen is adapting to these changes by integrating advanced manufacturing technologies and smart production processes into our state-of-the-art facilities in UAE, India and China. We understand the importance of maintaining our competitive edge and aim to meet the increasing demand for high-quality, customised fasteners," said Attin Maggo, CEO of Al Bateen Fasteners LLC.

For over 27 years, Al Bateen has been at the forefront of the fasteners industry, continuously adapting to changing market dynamics and industry requirements. While Al Bateen Fasteners continues its path of growth and innovation, its CEO, Attin Maggo, has taken an entrepreneurial leap into the hospitality sector in partnership with 'The Paharagan Kitchen', a successful Indian food delivery brand running in Dubai since 2023. The Paharagan Kitchen currently operates through 2 locations in Al Barsha South and Business Bay and has planned expansion in 2 other locations in Dubai in FY 2025. It also offers corporate & event catering services with custom-made packages.

Al Bateen's latest projects also include the prestigious Damman Dhahran Expo, one of the largest exhibition venues in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. For over 35 years, it has been recognised globally as a leader in the industry.

Additionally, Al Bateen supplied fasteners for Sharjah Safari Park, a sprawling wildlife sanctuary home to over 120 species and approximately 50,000 animals, including lions, tigers, cheetahs, and many other endangered species.
